President's Message

Norco's 50th BIRTHDAY celebration got underway with the Film Festival at the Norco High School Performing Arts Center. Sure hope you attended.

So as to not miss any of the special Birthday events....drop into City Hall, and pick up the fabulous calendar, full of historical information, and upcoming celebrations, plus the meeting schedules for many groups. The $5.00 fee includes a donation to the George Ingalls Veterans Memorial.

At the RURAL meeting, we voted to participate in the 50th BIRTHDAY celebration.....by creating a "TIME CAPSULE"!! Kriss Brooks has volunteered to create the capsule....out of stainless steel, about the size of a shoe box. We shall include a Calendar, a "Special Edition" RURAL NEWSLETTER, printed on acid free paper, a "Memory Stick"....loaded with as many pictures of our fair City, residents, activities.....whatever we can think of.....for residents of Norco to open in another 50 years, to see what life was like in 2014.

Let's hope the residents of 2064 still have a RURAL environment, and HORSETOWN, U.S.A. is better than ever!

I know our RURAL NEWSLETTER EDITOR, Dana Adams shall be including information from the City Web site, about up-coming events, but I encourage you all to check it out frequently, if you are not in the habit of doing so. I mention this because the "BIRTHDAY COMMITTEE" is still coming up with amazing ideas to include as many pictures of groups and activities of various types of residents that have lived in Norco for 50 years, attended schools here, were born here, graduated from NHS, etc. The plan is to publish a wonderful keepsake book, all about Norco's first 50 years, and the current residents/citizen's celebration in 2014.

So, stay tuned. It's going to be a fun and very busy year. Remember, all the BIRTHDAY celebrations are in addition to our regular traditional events.

See you at the RURAL meeting, February 27th.
